Forty-third Annual Announcement . . .

The Fort Wayne Woman's Club

Organized March 7, 1925

CLUB HOUSE

402 West Wayne Street

Telephone 742-7195

Mrs. Ben Tenny - - - - - Executive Secretary

Frank Widner - - - - - Custodian

The President's Message

Dear Friends,

"The secret of success is constancy to purpose," wrote Benjamin Disraeli. This motto can apply to the progress of the Woman's Club: constancy tempered, however, by new ideas and even new methods, if such are needed to meet today's challenge.

The importance of friends, on the other hand, is one verity which remains unalterable. Another sage, Samuel Johnson stated: "If a man does not make new acquaintances, as he advances through life, he will soon find himself left alone. A man should keep his friendship in constant repair."

Although our hearts were saddened last year by the deaths of ten of our members, our club association offers a fine opportunity to rebuild and enlarge our circle of friends. One of my biggest personal rewards as president has been getting to know the members better.

Thank you again for your cooperation and encouragement. Working together, we should be able to promote the ideals of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club.

Your friend,

HELEN CRISWELL

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

(Right hand over heart, standing at attention)

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Collect for Club Women

(all standing)

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; and make us grow calm, serene and gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all. And, O Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

— MARY STEWART.

Who's Who On Our Program

(Listed Alphabetically)

JOE CALLAWAY

For fifteen years Mr. Callaway has been one of the nation's most popular interpreters of the theatre scene. He sees all the Broadway plays each season and makes his audience feel that they have the best seats in the house as he reviews each presentation.

His early training at Southern California, Northwestern University, and Goodman Theatre gives him an excellent background to play the role of actor as well as critic.

SPENCE CRILLY

Mr. Crilly has had a varied background of writing, producing, and directing many films since he attended the University of California.

He has been responsible for numerous documentary films and has received several awards pertaining to Canadian Oil Industry. One called "Breakthrough," a British Columbia Film, won for him the "Festival Award."

His latest production—"Fantastic Hollywood"—promises to be another prize-winner.

NEIL DOUGLAS

Neil Douglas brings to us a new polacolor visualventure, his film on "Belgium—The Amazing Crossroads of Western Europe."

Mr. Douglas, a perfectionist for facts and figures, thoroughly researches each country filmed to better understand the historical background of the peoples and area.

He brings his audience the wonders and beauty of far away lands and folk and fills his tour pictures with exciting action. He has received many honors for his fine film programs on platform and television.

EDDIE GILMORE

Eddie Gilmore is back from "Swinging London." He is considered a smash hit on the lectures platform. Mr. Gilmore was an associated press foreign correspondent, based in London; and he ranges all over Europe. He was the former Moscow Bureau

Chief for twelve years, is winner of the Pulitzer prize and other top journalistic awards.

Mr. Gilmore has been a former speaker at our club and was enthusiastically received. His topic will be "The Newspaper Stories I Couldn't Write." He has covered some of the "hottest" stories in recent history and interviewed many of the leading figures of our time. You will hear stories, serious and light, that (for reasons official or personal) he has never been able to file.

CAMILLE GLENN

Camille is probably Kentucky's most outstanding cook and gourmet. She is the originator of the TV program "Flavor to Taste" and has her own School of Gourmet Cooking in Louisville. She also writes a food column for the Dawson Springs Progress. She has studied at Cordon Bleu, New York City and Paris.

"Cooking is one of the most creative outlets we can have and feed the family at the same time," says Camille. Her recipes, many of them original, have been tested many times at her school, at receptions, weddings, clubshows, church gatherings, and gourmet dinners.

ROSALIND GRAFF

Rosalind Graff has a complete dramatic background. She has appeared on television, radio, and stage. For several years she was "Story Lady" on a Chicago radio station. Her unique presentations make the New York Stage live for a vivid hour.

The characters' distinctive personalities and voices come alive in full action and color, when Mrs. Graff portrays them all in a completely memorized, one-woman production.

MRS. BLAIR HELMAN

Mrs. Helman is the vivacious wife of the president of North Manchester College. She writes all her own interesting material and plans the entire presentation. Mrs. Helman is in demand for her intriguing, clever lectures by many Woman's Clubs in the state. In 1965 she appeared at the club and did a program on hats. Mrs. Helman's hobby, "Creativity," has brought her great acclaim. Her subject, "The Psychology of Creativity" promises to be very interesting.

CHARLES H. HENKE

Mr. Henke will present his University Singers of the Fort Wayne Regional Campus for our Christmas Luncheons. They are well-trained to give a program of traditional Christmas music as well as the new modern Yule music.

Mr. Henke is a well-qualified task-master who draws the best from his students. He received his Bachelor's degree from Concordia University at River Forest, Illinois, and his Master's degree from Ball State. He has gone beyond the call of duty by singing operatic selections for the Fort Wayne Philharmonic Orchestra.

The director's regular duty is Chairman of the Department of Music at Concordia High School.

GERALD HOOPER

The film "Yugoslavia—Gem of the Balkans" deserves to be seen. It is filmed with technical perfection and presented with a brilliant narration. The film will hold any audience spell-bound. Its story-book towns, breathtaking panoramas, colorful native costumes and quaint customs, all add up to make this the season's most delightful travel adventure.

Mr. Hooper has a magical flair for seeking out the unusual and adding bits of eternal scenic loveliness. His art of presenting people of a country in a way that links them to their homeland rather than a people who could be found anywhere, makes this a fascinating, absorbing film.

ANTHONY KERSHAW

Mr. Kershaw, a lawyer by profession, attended Eton and Oxford Universities. He served in World War II as an officer with the Armoured Forces, and was awarded the Military Cross after seeing action in North Africa, France, and Germany.

Mr. Kershaw's experience in Parliament and as Secretary to the Minister of Defense, and the Leader of the Opposition—Edward Heath, qualify him to know exactly what is going on in both the Conservative and Labor Parties.

JAMES ALLAN LINDUSKA

Mr. Linduska gave such a brilliant performance at the Anniversary Luncheon that many requested he favor the club with a return engagement.

He is an extremely talented, handsome, young baritone who captures his audience with his first selection. Having appeared with such famous artists as Al Hirt, Martha Raye, Walter Slezak, Connie Stevens, and many others at leading nightclubs—he knows the way to please.

JACQUES MALOUBIER

Jacques Maloubier invites you to join him on an artistic tour (with musical background) of Paris.

He sketches Paris as it looked in the days of Van Gogh, Degas, and others, and as it looks today. Under a spotlight, he displays beautiful color reproductions of French masterpieces and tells amusing anecdotes about the artists. Bringing his own tape recorder, Mr. Maloubier plays appropriate French music of each period.

Mr. Maloubier invites someone from the audience whom he sketches in the style as varied as Renoir and Picasso. He accompanies his sketches by bursting into impromptu song as he works. It is easy to see why he is acclaimed as a "Resounding Hit" on the lecture platform.

EDWARD McFAUL

Mr. McFaul, billed as the "Serious Humorist" has received great acclaim across the nation. He achieved outstanding success lecturing for national and state convention groups, Chambers of Commerce, and business organizations.

The last thirty years, Mr. McFaul spent in the fields of university teaching, personnel management, selling, and speech consultancy. He recently received "The Distinguished Award in the Field of Speech" from his Alma Mater — Marquette University.

HELEN JOYCE McLANE

Miss McLane entered public relations work after graduating in 1951 with distinction from Northwestern University's School of Speech. She has been active in this field for fourteen years which qualifies her as a public speaker on a national level. She also handles general public relations assignments.

Miss McLane is a director of National Association of Investment Clubs and co-authored a book on investment clubs. She is an accredited member of the Public Relations Society of America and is listed in "Who's Who Among American Women."

MARCIA MOORE

Mrs. Moore, a graduate of Radcliffe, has studied yoga both here and in India with a number of leading Swamis. She teaches the theory that yoga is not a religion but a technique; a way of life that increases one's vitality, gives relaxation and peace of mind. Mrs. Moore believes yoga brings about miraculous rejuvenation.

In Mrs. Moore's Westernized version of yoga, she stresses non-strenuous exercises which are applicable to men and women of all ages.

HARRY W. MORGAN

Harry Morgan, a roving editor for Reader's Digest is a man of ideas, a man of action. While still in his twenties, he was selected as one of America's outstanding young men by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. He has been featured in Life Magazine. Mr. Morgan's lecture is full of human-interest anecdotes about people he has met, the places he has been, the challenges he has encountered. He will take you around the world with him as he travels 100,000 miles a year on behalf of world friendship.

In 1953, as a very young man, Mr. Morgan journeyed to Holland where thousands had been made homeless by floods. While helping these people rebuild their homes and scrape mud from their streets, he was disturbed by the distorted picture most of them had of Americans. Morgan decided to do something about it, and since then he has traveled constantly, building friendship on a person-to-person basis. You will find Harry Morgan an "unforgettable man—an unforgettable lecturer."

KAREN PRYOR

Something really unique, a beautiful porpoise trainer, Karen Pryor and her husband, Tapp run the famous two million dollar Sea Life Park in Hawaii, which is rapidly becoming the country's foremost scientific oceanographic research center. Karen helps train the porpoises and false killer whales and adlibs the public performances at Sea Life Park. This is a fascinating and entertaining report.

Karen has lived with marine life as long as she can remember, for her father, the famous Philip Wylie, was a marine biologist and deep sea fishing expert. Karen was brought up in Connecticut and attended Cornell University.

MADAM LAMYA SARMAST

Madam Sarmast was born in a harem and educated in Paris. After visiting her native Persia last summer, she is returning to the platform with an up-to-the-minute report on how modernism is affecting Iran's ancient customs, establishments, and beliefs. Madam Sarmast fulfills the function of an ambassador of goodwill between her people and those of the modern world.

DOUG SMITH

"Quick on the Draw" is the title of Doug Smith's delightful lecture. Mr. Smith is a cartoonist for the world's largest evening newspaper, "The London Evening News."

Drawing from his everyday situations which evoke laughter the world over, Doug Smith delights his audience with his lightning sketches and his hilarious commentary on the world of a cartoonist. Using his own large easel, paper and crayon, he makes funny recognizable cartoons take shape before your eyes. His cartoons have appeared in "Saturday Evening Post" and most of the English leading magazines.

Here is a program that will appeal to all who have a sense of humor. After listening to Doug Smith speak, and watching him perform, you will know why he is called "England's fastest draw."

MRS. JOSEPH M. SMITH

Mrs. Joseph Smith is a former missionary to China and the Philippines under the United Christian Missionary Society. She is an ordained minister, who has served on the Board of Directors of the International Convention of Christian Churches as well as on the Board of Managers and Board of Trustees of the ## U.C.M.S.

The Rev. Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith were placed in an internment camp during the 1940-1945 conflict with the Japanese. They were forced to return to the States with their two sons after the invasion of the communists. The Smiths have just returned from a world tour including two months intensive study of Asia.

Mrs. Smith's past experiences qualify her well to be our Lenten speaker.

SUE STEVENS

Sue Stevens is not only an excellent singer and guitarist, but has a keen dramatic sense. Her first professional artistic training was received at Tuft College. She sang with the Connecticut All-State Chorus. Her musical experience has ranged from highly successful solo recitals to musical comedy, revues, and off-Broadway performances. Currently, Sue is doing leading dramatic roles, as well as a children's musical, for the New York's Roundabout Theatre.

Sue Stevens' program consists of folk songs from the Elizabethian heritage, through Colonial days, slave days, Civil War, "The Trek West," work songs—down to songs of modern protest.

This is an excitingly different program, presented by the charming, talented, singing actress, Sue Stevens.

VALERIE OF BALMAIN

Balmain of Paris nicknamed her "Lady Bread and Butter" and hired her immediately when she arrived in France in 1965. Balmain liked her "dancer's walk" and "mad English nonchalance," and since then Valerie has traveled with him all over Europe, Nigeria, Istanbul, Lebanon, and Greece.

Valerie was an English miss whose love of people and adventure drew her into the "unreal" world of fashion. She gives her view of the crazy, glittery, some say superficial world she lives in today. She tells about her friends, her enemies, what happens behind the scenes and behind the eyes of the girl on the catwalk. You will hear it all, she says, "straight from the clothes horse's mouth."

DAVID YOUNG

David Young, senior research associate of Sinclair, has been called "The idea man with the varnished violin." He is one of the country's top research men.

As a chemist for thirty years, Mr. Young has unraveled so many mysteries he has forced "a single-minded industry," to put up with his non-conformist nature, and unusual hobby—the rare violin. Because of his passion for his hobby, Mr. Young has become a concert musician and an expert on Stradivari.

He has received many scientific honors and is known as one of the leading inventors in the field of petroleum industry.

ANNUAL REPORT FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT 1965-1967

The Fine Arts Department sponsored five Art exhibits and two teas honoring artists. The Department made a twenty-five dollar donation to the Brown County Art Gallery Association at Nashville, Indiana; toward the rebuilding of the Gallery which was destroyed by fire. At our Annual Meeting we were given permission to hold a white elephant sale at which we collected fifty dollars and forty cents. We were granted permission to purchase from this fund a frame for the painting presented to the club by Mr. Norman Garbo. This left a balance of forty-three dollars and sixty cents which we turned over to the general club fund. Seven new members were welcomed into the Department. We successfully carried out all our Department activities and they were well supported by our membership.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE RECORDING SECRETARY

1966-1967

On October 20, 1966, when members of the Fort Wayne Woman's Club arrived for the Opening Tea which signaled the official commencement of the club activities, they were greeted on the lower level by a beautiful new elevator, whose doors silently slid open at the touch of a button. No more tugging at a heavy door, holding it open with a foot or a shoulder while you pulled at the inner door. Remember how both doors had to be forcefully held open until you were safely inside? Then, while traveling up, or down, you gathered strength for a repetition of the same procedure in order to get off?

During the thirty-nine years we have occupied these quarters, many improvements have been made, but none which has been as beneficial to each and every one of us. From the bottoms of our hearts, THANK YOU, PROJECT COMMITTEE, who made it possible.

In order to keep this resume brief, I will eliminate any reports which will be printed in the year book.

During the past year, the business of the club was conducted during nine regular and one called meeting of the Board of Directors. Members of the Board, realizing it is an honor and a privilege to be chosen, have attended meetings regularly, giving serious consideration to situations which arose, and to solving the problems of running a club as large as this one.

Our gracious and highly efficient President, Mrs. Criswell, presided at the Board Meetings and met twice with the Executive Board. As an ex-officio member of the Board of Trustees and of the Furnishings Committee, she was present at all of their meetings. She presided over general club functions, attended department activities, and acted as delegate to the State and National conventions of the Federation of Women's Clubs. On the three occasions when she could not be present, our very able First Vice-President, Mrs. McDowell, presided.

All the officers performed the duties required of them, and the Chairmen of the six departments held their special programs and parties as outlined in the year book. The Chairmen of Standing and Special Committees functioned with outstanding efficiency. The finances are in good condition, and the budget has been met. We are very grateful to those thoughtful and generous members who have remembered the club with gifts.

The core of this club is the Thursday morning program, and this year, Mrs. Fitch provided twenty-three outstanding and very diversified lectures. Subjects covered were: drama, world events, music, literature, psychology, astrology, poetry, travel films and slides, interior decorating and fashions.

Our social functions, under the leadership of Mrs. Watson, were truly gala affairs, highly successful in every way.

The Project Committee, which is always finding new ways for adding to our income, took over the sale of specially designed charms bearing the seal of the Woman's Club, sold note paper and conducted the annual trips to Chicago and New York, netting a total amount of $1,846.27 for our treasury.

This year, not enough interest was displayed in Bridge lessons, so only two classes were offered to the members—one in oil painting and the other in bowling. Participation in each was enthusiastic and beneficial. On April 27, an exhibit of oil paintings by the teacher, Mrs. Robert Houser and her students was held in the lounge. For obvious reasons, the bowling teams were not able to show off their progress. The Lending Library was re-activated and members may again borrow books from the shelves for a period of two weeks. An assortment of worthwhile magazines is kept current in the lounge, for those members who wish to browse a bit while they are waiting.

On November 3rd, we planned to open our doors as usual to the Indiana Federation of Women's Clubs, and the Indiana State Board, with Mrs. Earle Brown, 2nd Vice-President of the General Federation as principle speaker. On November 2nd, a surprise blizzard snowed in Fort Wayne, making it impossible even for members in town to reach the club, let alone the many women who were planning to drive in from surrounding counties on Thursday morning. The State Board, and the speaker, Mrs. Brown, had arrived before the snow, so Mrs. Criswell, Mrs. Rodey and Mrs. Gordon fought their way through snow drifts to the Van Orman Hotel, where they staged a last-minute luncheon for the stranded ladies. This is real dedication. Through the tireless efforts of Mrs. Rodey, we actively participated in Federation projects. She attended meetings at the County, the District and the State level, and worked so diligently, prodding all of us to help, that the Fort Wayne Woman's Club received ten Awards at the Allen County Federation Convention.

The Furnishings Committee and the Board of Trustees are two very busy and important groups. They are the ones who have the responsibility of the long-range view. Each will have a detailed report in the year book and we hope you will all read them.

Because a good club has to be a progressive one, making necessary changes from time to time, our ever-alert Revisions Committee has been very busy this year, bringing up-to-date our By-Laws, Standing Rules and House Rules. Here again, I will not attempt in this report to enumerate them. Club maintenance fees were also studied and, where necessary, were changed to a more realistic figure.

During the year, our club was staffed regularly by an Executive Secretary, a Cateress, a Cloak Room attendant and a full-time Custodian, assisted on a part-time basis by a Relief Secretary and custodian for evening parties.

This is our record. We believe it is a good record. We hope you agree with us.

Mary Baxter, Recording Secretary

ANNUAL REPORT BOARD OF TRUSTEES, 1963-1967

The Board of Trustees met, as per the by-laws, in October and March and in three additional called meetings.

The important summer project was to check the completion of the installation of the new Haughton Elevator and to select wall pads to protect the inside formica. Carpeting for the elevator was donated by a member of the trustees and installed through Standard Rug Co. New ceiling lights were installed in the office and a credenza was purchased for additional storage space. New side wall lights were installed in the lower and upper foyers and hallway. New formica was put on a work table in the kitchen. A lavalier mike was purchased for better speaking facilities and aluminum step ladders were ordered to replace the old wooden ladders.

The funds of the Club were reviewed and the continuing upkeep on the building was discussed. The Chamber of Commerce increased the fire insurance on the building to $1,055,000.00 and our share of the additional premium will amount to $120.96 per year.

The retiring trustees are Mrs. W. H. Bryant, Mrs. Ralph Kenner and Mrs. James Newkirk. The newly elected trustees for a three-year period are Miss Marie Ehle, Mrs. Russell Erb and Mrs. Melvin Powell.

At the last regular meeting, Mrs. Ralph Elston was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees for the year 1967-1968.

Lorraine E. Kenner, Chairman

CLASSES 1966-67

Classes in oil painting and bowling were offered this year. Bridge was dispensed with because of lack of interest.

Mrs. Vivian Hauser again conducted the painting class which was greeted with much enthusiasm. An exhibit of the work done was held Thursday, April 27th at the club.

The bowlers, some amateur and some veteran, enjoyed their Wednesday morning meetings at Westwood Lanes.

Plans are already underway for next year.
